SECTION VERSE:

JOHN 14:26

“But the Advocate, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, will teach you all things and will remind you of everything I have said to you.”

Once you reach them, you have to teach them. Share Jesus' teaching with others.

PRAYER

Ask God to help you reach out and teach those who are newer disciples than you are. Ask Him to help you be a testimony to your friends and family.

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

- Who taught you how to ride a bike? Why did they do that? How did they know how? Will you teach someone else to ride? Why/why not?
- Who did Jesus say should teach others about Him? Does that include you? Why?

Are You a Reproducing Disciple?

Jesus had the twelve disciples. Paul had Timothy and Silas and Luke. Barnabas had Mark. The master had grasshopper, and Yoda had Luke Skywalker. Seriously though. Who are you pouring your life into? Are you passing along all that He commanded you?

When Jesus said, "teach them," He did not, I think, have in mind a classroom setting, or a man standing in a pulpit. That was not His primary method after all. Jesus made disciples by walking with them, where they lived, teaching them lessons about the Kingdom based on their earthly life experiences. He set an example for them, ate with them, healed them, comforted them, laughed with them, mourned with them, prayed with them and for them, cried in front of them, gave them sound doctrine about this life and the next, called them friend, challenged them, and then laid down His life for them. A close examination of Paul's disciple making and church planting ministry looked much the same. Barnabas as well.

This is not a New Testament command either. Deuteronomy 4:9 tells us to teach the things of God to our children and their children after them. In Genesis, God tells Abraham, "In you all families of the earth will be blessed," and He called Israel a light to the nations that they might bring His salvation to the earth.

Nor was this a command for a select few disciples. Most scholars agree, there were as many as 500 disciples gathered in Galilee for this commissioning. If you are a disciple then this is a command for you. Don't pass up the blessing of disciple making. Don't lose sight of your mission.

Bring glory to the Father by making disciples.

We're not to wait for the world to come to us. Rather, we're to go to the world. "Go ye" could be better translated "having gone." It isn't a command; it's an assumption.

- John MacArthur
