SPOTTER, LESSON 2: GOD IS FAITHFUL TO FORGIVE

Something Stinks

Ben Franklin is quoted as saying, "Guests, like fish, begin to smell after three days." I think the same thing could be said about sin. If we attempt to hide sin, to cover it up, to "regard" it in our hearts, it is only a matter of time before it will begin to stink up the place. Numbers 32:23 tells us that we can be sure that our, "sin will be discovered. It will be brought out into the open." In Hebrews 4:13 we are reminded that, "Nothing God created is hidden from Him. His eyes see everything. He will hold us accountable for everything we do."

So how does sin begin to stink? King David, the subject of our case study, gives us detailed insight into the very real physical effects of un-confessed sin in the life of a believer.

When I kept silent,
my bones wasted away
through my groaning all day long.
For day and night
your hand was heavy on me;
my strength was sapped
as in the heat of summer.

(Psalm 32:3-4)

Only when David, after being confronted by Nathan, recognizes his sin for what it is and despises it as God does, does he find forgiveness.

Then I admitted my sin to you.
I didn't cover up the wrong I had done.
I said, "I will admit my lawless acts to the Lord."
And you forgave the guilt of my sin. (Psalm 32:5)

Belonging to Christ involves a change of mind, the adoption of a new worldview in which sin is seen through the eyes of God for what it is. Confession begins with seeing and hating our sin. Don't let sin be a guest in your house.
