BOOKS & OTHER RESOURCES

*Desires in Conflict: Hope for Men Who Struggle with Sexual Identity* by Joe Dallas (author website): For more than a decade, this book has been the definitive must-read for those who wonder "Can a homosexual change?" This new edition with updated information offers more compelling reasons why the answer is resoundingly "yes!"

*Longing For Intimacy: Hope for Women Struggling with Same-Sex Attraction* by Amy Riordan (author website): Amy's journey through wrestling with same-sex attraction and how she discovered intimacy with Jesus to satisfy the deep longings of her heart. As she surrendered her sexuality and heart to Jesus, Amy broke free from a pornography addiction, lust, and many layers of shame.

*Gay Girl, Good God* by Jackie Hill Perry (author website): Jackie grew up fatherless and experienced gender confusion. She embraced masculinity and homosexuality with every fiber of her being. She knew that Christians had a lot to say about all of the above, but how was she supposed to stop loving women, when homosexuality felt more natural to her than heterosexuality ever could? Her life transformed when she came face-to-face with what it meant to be made new in light of the Gospel.

Embracing God's Design by Walt Heyer (author website) & Jennifer Bauwens: Written by a trauma therapist and a man who previously identified as a woman, this resource brings understanding about the origins of the gender movement and how to support those struggling with issues of sexuality, gender identity and transgender ideology.

Sexuality & the Gospel RBC sermon series by Pastor Mike Minter: Until you see yourself as sexually broken, you will never empathize with the brokenness of others; you will demonize them. God's indictment is not on a particular community, but on the sinfulness of all people. The broken world is waiting to see salt and light combined with grace and truth.
